The Grand Tasting is a delicious opportunity for guests to sip and savor an impressive array of delectable wines. Guests will mix and mingle with vintners, shop amongst the exhibitors, and hang with fellow wine lovers at this signature event.

Each participating exhibitor will receive online and print marketing/promotion of their company & product(s).

Please take the time to read the enclosed material carefully, so that you are aware of all of the festival guidelines.

Texas State law requires that all vendors at festivals, such as The Galveston Island Wine Festival, have a Texas state sales tax permit. There are some exceptions to this law, and you should consult an attorney to determine if you are exempt. Nevertheless, all exhibitors will be required to provide a state sales tax permit number to participate in the Wine Festival. Texas State Sales Tax personnel will be on site and checking for valid TEXAS state sales tax numbers. Galveston Island Wine Festival must receive this number to comply with local ordinance and state statute. You will not be allowed to operate as an exhibitor unless you provide that number on your application or before the opening date or can provide proof of exemption.

Consumer sampling exhibitors will be required to obtain a health permit from the Galveston County Health Department (409-938-2303).
